

COOKIE INFORMATION

Telia Latvia cares about the protection of personal data of its website visitors by complying with the relevant Latvian laws and regulations in force. Understanding that your information is valuable, Telia Latvia undertakes to make all reasonable steps to protect your information while it is at our disposal, but at the same time, we cannot undertake similar responsibility for other websites to which we have published links on our site. Our intention is to collect and process the information gathered from the website visitors only in accordance with the purposes of its collection so that we are able to offer information and / or services relevant to your interests.

WHAT ARE COOKIES?

When visiting our homepage, cookies may be stored on your computer or on the device connected to Internet. In this way, the site remembers your computer or device thus serving to several purposes, but in general with the intent to provide a more personalized user experience when visiting the website. Cookies are small text files that are placed by the websites you visit on your computer's hard disk to make more efficient performance and to provide some information to the owners of the site. Today, the use of cookies is an ordinary practice in most websites. Most web browsers accept cookies automatically, however you can manage and control them by changing Internet browser settings. You may delete cookies from your device at any time. More information about managing cookies is available at www.aboutcookies.org.

WHAT TYPES OF COOKIES DO WE USE?

Telia Latvia website uses two types of cookies: analytical and target cookies.

Analytical Cookies

We use some analytic tools that collect information about how visitors use our website. It helps us not only to improve the quality and content of the site, but also to provide the visitor with a customized offer. However, analytical cookies identify only the equipment used, without disclosing the identity of the site visitor. Some analytical cookies are managed by Google AdWords in accordance with our strong guidelines of purposes of data usage.

Target Cookies

We use this type of cookies in order to offer the most relevant services or offers to our site's visitors. We also use them to evaluate the effectiveness of our advertising campaigns. Target cookies are set by third parties such as Google AdWords in accordance with our strict guidelines of data usage purposes; and they are kept in the users' devices permanently.

By using this website, you agree that we can place these cookies on your computer or on an Internet-connected device for the stated purposes.

COOKIE MANAGEMENT

By accepting the pop-up announcement about the use of cookies on the Telia Latvia website, you also confirm that you are familiar with the purposes of using them in this site. Visitors of our site can manage or delete cookies at their own discretion. You can either delete all the cookies stored on your computer, or set the browser in such a mode that cookies are not stored on your device. However, in this case, it must be taken into account that the functionality of the site in your device may be decreased. More information about managing cookies is available at www.aboutcookies.org.
